IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR FOREIGN CENTERS AND IOEC - INTERNATIONAL ONLINE EXAM CENTER

ABGMV Mandal is announcing changes in the online theory question paper format of Madhyama Pratham & Madhyama Poorna level with effect from November-December 2026 exam session. Revisions are made in the question paper format as follows: -

- A) Madhyama Pratham: - Q1, Q2, Q3 & Q4 will be Objective pattern (click on the right answer) and Q5 will be descriptive pattern question of 15 marks where students will have to write either notations or short notes or life history or essay type answers on a separate answersheet provided by Mandal and upload it in the exam portal during the theory exam. For this purpose, students will require scanner, printer, smartphone etc technical setup to upload the answers.
- B) Madhyama Poorna: - Q1, Q2, Q3 will be objective pattern (click on right answer) and Q4 (15 marks) & Q5 (15 marks) will be descriptive pattern questions where students will have to write either notations or short notes or life history or essay type answers on a separate answer sheet provided by Mandal and upload it in the exam portal during the theory exam. For this purpose, students will require scanner, printer, smartphone etc technical setup to upload the answers.

All Madhyama Pratham and Madhyama Poorna students appearing for the Online Theory Examination from overseas centers or Center No. 1186 (IOEC) are advised to take note of the revised theory question paper format and make the necessary arrangements and preparations accordingly.
